BODY OF BRIDE OF WEEK FOUND IN NEW GRAVE

Inquest Held Today — Extended Search Is Made for Man.

WOMAN HAD $500.00

Had Been Married Four Times — Witnesses Saw Bridegroom Make Nervious Exit Alone.

By Associated Press

MILWAUKEE, June 16.—The body of Mrs. George Cummings of Grand Rapids, bride of a week, found in a shallow grave yesterday, was taken to Whittenburg today for an inquest and an extended search was begun for her husband who was last seen in an automobile headed toward Wausau.

Early Sunday Cummings prepared hurriedly for departure from the tourist camp where he and his bride had stopped the night before, apparently in a happy frame of mind. Cummings' machine stalled in a ditch near the camp and the driver excitedly offered twenty-five dollars to a farmer to help extricate the automobile. The farmer's children saw Cummings digging in the sand near the car a short time before. Investigation disclosed the nude body of his wife. She had been married four times. She is thought to have had five hundred dollars in her possession when they went on the honeymoon.

PRINCETON GRAND JURY DISCHARGED

Judge Orders New Panel When Body Refuses to Bring Indictments.

PRINCETON, June 16.—Excitement in the law enforcement war which has been waged here for nearly two weeks broke out anew Friday when Circuit Judge Ruby Laffoon ordered the empaneling of a new grand jury. This action followed the filing of an affidavit by Commonwealth's Attorney T. C. Bennett, in which he alleged that the grand jury had refused to indict various persons against whom sufficient evidence had been heard to warrant an indictment.

In open court Judge Laffoon drew from the jury wheel a list of twenty-four names and instructed Sheriff Henry Towery to summon the men to report for grand jury service.

They will be specifically charged to investigate alleged infractions of the law uncovered as a result of the law enforcement campaign maugurated here several days ago, one by the city authorities in which several county officials and scores of other citizens were arrested, and a counter move by the county authorities in which some of the city officials and several of the leaders in the city crusade were arrested.

Fiddlin' John Carson Pleases His Audience

"Fiddlin' John" Carson and his three accompanists playing here at the Manring Theater Saturday night, succeeded in delighting their audience with their repertoire. Unfortunately, the audience was not as good as usual.

Carson himself, as a trick violinist, deserves all of the credit that has been given him as the "best in the south." There was none of the old airs that he had overlooked, seemingly. A banjo, a guitar and another violin were played by his accompanists.

Race Prejudices In Manila From Competion of Laborers of Two Races.

Associtaed Press.

MANILA, June 16—Race prejudice arising from competition between Japanese and Filipino laborers, artisians and chauffeurs in the province of Davao may result in serious trouble, according to a report made by H. Cruz, director of the bureau of labor, to the secretary of commerce and communications.

The trait of "protectionism" practiced by Japanese nationals, Director Cruz declared, is largel responsible for the threatened trouble, as in virtually every industrial activity in Davao, of which a great portion is in the hands of the Japanese, the Japanese laborers are given preference over Filipinos. Nearly one-half of the Japanese in the Philippine Islands live in the province of Davao.

Among other complaints received wasreceived was one from the chauffeur's union of the city of Davao, which alleged that Japanese residents refuse to use automobiles driven by Filipinos

With the complaint of the chauffeurs came a recommendation that the law be changed limiting the issuance of licenses to Filipinos and Americans only.

AVERS CHURCH IS NOW LOSING GRIP

Protestants Have Not Prestige Enjoyed Here Half Century Ago.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Results of exhaustive researches showing that Protestantism is rapidly losing its grip in rural America, were made lic today by the Institute of Social and Religious Research, of this city, in its report of a recently completed study of thousands of rural Protestant churches.

The study shows by attendance data, according to the institute, that the influence of the church in the country, its supposed stronghold and inexhaustible recruiting ground, is now only half as great as it was a generation ago. Yet evidence of the church's decline is not the only feature of the report that will prove disturbing, especially to denominational executives.

The purpose of Institute of Social and Religious Research is to apply scientific methods to the study of social and religious problems. The governing body is composed of John R. Mott, chairman; Ernest T. Burton, secretary; Raymond B. Fosdick, treasurer; James L. Barton, W. H. P. Faunce, and Kenyon L. Butterfield. Galen M. Fisher is executive secretary.

The main purpose of the study, which was made for the Institute by Dr. C. Luther Fry, was to test the trustworthiness of methods generally used by these executives to get at the truth about the churches; and the conclusion reached, according to the report, is that the methods are misleading and should be discarded.

The report is a volume of more than 200 pages which is published today for the Institute under the title "Diagnosing the Rural Church." In it Dr. Fry presents the results of an exhaustive scientific study, based on extensive surveys, in a way to show that the real situation with respect to the church could not have been brought to light by the usual methods employed by denominational boards. It was only by developing and using new and precise statistical methods, the report shows, that he discovered the rural church's plight.

KNOXVILLE SERGEANT, HERO OF SAMAR MASSACRE, HONORED

Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—The peaceful old Presidio of San Francisco local army post since the early days of California's history, was the scene recently of the retirement from army life of the hero and one of the few survivors of the Balangiga massacre, in Samar. Taylor B. Hickman, of Knoxville, Tenn., master sergeant, was called forward from his company and complimented feelingly by a superior officer for his 36 year sof inspiring service as a soldier of the United States.

Hickman was told he was still a sergeant only because he had modestly thrust aside a commission. A decoration was pinned on his chest, hands were clasped, and the old hero of Balangiga walked back to his quarters, a a soldier no longer, but a greater hero than ever. There was a tear on the rim of the steely eye and the fighting jaw trembled a bit. The company, at rest, followed him with their eyes until he was out of sight.

"I would go back again tomorrow if my country called," Hickman said. "I think I have a few good fights left in me yet."

Seventy-one enlisted men and three officers of Company C, Ninth U. S Infantry, went into camp at Balangiga, Island of Samar, in the Philippines, 23 years ago. A few days later occurred the attack on these men and the massacre which in the annals of the American army has been compared to the last stand of Custer. Totally and without warning an dwhile at breakfast the Americans were rushed by hundreds of Visayans armed with heavy knives called bolos. The three officers were killed in the first onslaught. The fight lasted well over two hours, and the next day the eight American survivors, including Sergeant Hickman, reached Basay in native canoes. The natives killed by the Americans numbered 250.

BRAZILIAN GENTRY LINES UP FOR UNITED STATES "PALM BEACH"

By Associated Press.

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 16.—Although this has been a land of perpetual summer far beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant, it is only now that the Brazilian is learning how to handle hot weather, and he is receiving some of his best tips from the American.

Up to very recently, the Brazilian dressed with great formality. Black was the prevailing color, black, heavy and hot. But now the Brazilian appears fresh and smiling in American "palm beach," whether he be senator, gambler or undertaker. Nowadays black is worn here only by foreigners.

A while ago the Brazilian refreshed himself with coffee, from half a dozen to 20 small cups a day. The sidewalk tables with their coffeedrinkers are historical in Rio. At infrequent intervals he would take a tentative sip of lemonade or cocoanut milk.

But now the Brazilian is lining up on little stools before soda fountains, another American invasion of recent date. He is drinking ice cream sodas, sundaes and everything a regular American drug store has for sale.

The American soda fountain made its debut here during the Centennial Exposition. It was accepted as a novelty and everybody tried it once. Then an adventuresome "Yankee" installed one in a small cafe on the outskirts of the business district of Rio. His success was so instant and enormous that the police were obliged to help handle the crowds. Soda fountains are now appearing in all parts of the city.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Middlesboro people were shocked Saturday at the tragic resumption of the family feud which they had thought was at an end months ago. That just as this city was getting on its feet, obliterating the old stains of lawlessness, and establishing a new record as a beautiful and progressive city, this matter should crop out again to be disseminated hundreds of miles about us,— how humiliating and discouraging this all is.

We as citizens have been lulled into indifference and insensibility during these months of peace. Because no shooting affrays were reported, because liquor dispensing was not carried on openly on Cumberland Avenue, we had believed it all a thing of the past. Yet all of the time bootlegging, gambling and all other known forms of lawlessness have flourished in other sections of the city and men known the state over as criminals have gone about unrestricted, carrying one, two or three deadly weapons, as they saw fit.

The responsibility in this case does not rest alone with the people who break the laws for they have been breaking them so long they probably don't dsitinguish in the matter of right and wrong. Neither does it rest with the officers entirely. We of course look to them to protect us but no set of officers in the world will stay on their toes all of the time when they know that no one is particularly concerned in their doing it. The big responsibility is with the people of Middlesboro who, through indifference and unconcern have allowed this matter to go on unnoticed.

Many of us do not have time to vote. Many of us use any means we can to get off jury service. Few of us ever take time to attend a court session and hear how justice is administered. We elect the commissioners that present themselves and these commissioners elect the officers who ask to be elected. Just so we elect our judges and legislators, and all of the other officers of city, county and state. When crime, disregard for law and fraud result we can but blame nurselves.

If our laws were properly enforced, George Colson would not have been drunk and would not have endangered himself in enemy territory. If these same laws were enforced neither of these men would have had guns in their possession. We elected the commissioners who chose the officers to enforce the laws just as we elected the legislators who made the state laws and just as we elected state officers for state law enforcement. More than that shame to say, we helped to elect Former Governor Edwin P. Morrow whose exercise of pardoning power was a material aid in the furtherance of this trouble and on whose shoulders, with those who counseled him, must rest a considerable portion of the blame for the homicide.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHARLES G. DAWES

The following tribute to the Republican vice-presidential candidate carries with it double force because it is taken from the very Democratic Louisville Times:

The Republican convention put some life into the national political situation when it nominated Charles G. Dawes as the running mate for Calvin Coolidge. The American people like a fighting man and they like Mr. Dawes. The public has not forgotten the stinging rebuke that the former soldier gave to the smelling committee that was trying to find flaws in the record of the war administration. They will recall these words:

> I am not a Democrat, but I do not feel like picking fly-specks in the War Department's conduct of the war  If you would stop the millions going to waste under your noses we would have a hell of a lot better government

This banker, soldier, author, song writer, solver of reparations problems is a dangerous candidate from the Democratic standpoint. Strong and brainy and bold he will put red blood into the campaign. The electorate might admire Calvin Coolidge; it will generate a great deal of affection for Charles G. Dawes, shirt-sleeve diplomat.

Incidentally, Mr. Dawes will in his record at least be sufficient answer to the attempts of the Republican campaign managers to throw odium on the Democratic administration that the tentative platform sneers at as "unfortunate."

If the voting in America were cool-headed, the personal popularity of Mr. Dawes would not be so important a factor to be reckoned with in November. If Mr. Dawes were twice the man he is, the fact that the Vice Presidency is hardly more than an honorary office would not be affected. The troubles brought upon this country by the policy of get-the-money, boys would not be removed by a Vice President, no matter how popular he might be.

BEER ET AL AS "MEDICINE"

The house of delegates of the American Medical association at Chicago a few days ago adopted a resolution opposing aspects of the national prohibition law which interfere with the use of alcohol for medical purposes. The house asked that the association use its best efforts to have repealed the section of the law interfering with prescriptions of alcohol by doctors.

No less an authority than the Supreme Court of the United States has decided that beer is not a medicine. "Neither beer or any other intoxicating malt liquor," a member of the court explains is listed in the United States' pharmacopeia as a medicine. Druggists themselves do not so regard it.

There is no agreement by physicians that beer or any other fluid containing alcohol has any real medical value. The house of delegates are bound to admit, if they are honest, that there is sense as well as law in the decision of the ruling court.

Whatever may be or not be the merits of beer, about how many people now clamoring for light wines and beer, with something stronger on the side, ever drank it as "medicine?" Perhaps if Judge Landis or Dr. Butler had written the decision the house of delegates would have had some manner of legal legs to stand on. But leading members of their own profession and health authorities in every other school of healing, have condemned liquor with alcoholic properties and it remains for any clear thinking person not to accept the verdict of these gentlemen until the doctors have purged the schism in their own profession.

The honeymoon ends when the furniture store collector begins.

When you get out beyond the three-mile limit you are liable to get into hot water.

Most of us had rather be the world's champion talker than the world's champion fighter.

These are the days the flies are following men home to have the screen door opened for them.

Before letting your conscience be your guide be sure you have a conscience.

Men are not always superior to animals. A horse can switch his tail to keep the flies off.

Our idea of a fine job for this summer would be sitting on a cake of ice waiting for it to melt.

Bootlegging pays fairly good money after you work up to where you can start a drug store.

THE OPEN FORUM

Amusement For the Poor

Editor Daily News:—You criticise the children of poor people who become dependent upon charity in the winter for patronizing the merry-go-round this summer.

What do you expect these children to do—never indulge in any amusement at all?

There are many children who derive more pleasure from one such ride than a wealthy person would from a trip in an aeroplane.

Poor people do not get many diversions. It would surprise a person who has no intimate knowledge of their lives, to find out how many feel barred from attending church for lack of suitable clothes. The churches are becoming rich men's clubs.

If people of only moderate means indulge in automobiles until Cumberland Avenue is congested every day with idle joy riders, it would seem fair that the children of very poor people could have a few rides on the merry-go-round.

The United States is rotten ripe with wealth. Instance the two Chicago boys who had become so satiated with every indulgence that money can buy that they could find no "kick" in anything short of murder.

The love of material wealth has landed a governor in the penitentiary and corrupted certain members of the U. S. cabinet.

As long as Providence has not sent down any pestilence on this highviced nation for the sins of its rich people, I take it that the poor, or at least the children of the poor, should be allowed a little space in the indulgence in what to us appears to be a foolish pleasure.

Stars and Stripes First Flown on Ship Katy 149 Years Ago

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—One hundred and forty-nine years ago the hand of a senior lieutenant on the Colonial ship Katy lying in Delaware River set to the breeze for the first time a flag with alternate stripes of red and white. It signified that an American navy had come into commission with Commodore Esek Hopkins in command by act of the Continental Congress, and the hand that tugged at the halyards to set the colors flying was that of the executive officer of the ship, John Paul Jones.

That was the beginning of the Stars and Stripes, the flag to which more than a hundred millions of Americans now pay homage. The stripes were there, but the stars of the sovereign independence of the states were still to be set in place. In their stead, the blue field of the banner whipped by the winds of that December day bore the crosses of St. George, the twin crosses of England—visual assurance that the men of the colonies yet clung to their English faith and origin and were concerned only, with securing that freedom to which they were entitled as Englishmen dwelling overseas.

It was a year and a half latter that the Stars and Stripes was formally adopted by Congress. Curiously enough neither that banner nor its predecessor was ever carried by troops of the revolutionary armies. They fought under the flags of their states. It was for the hardy sailormen to carry it around the world and win for it international honors.

Since these days there have become intertwined with the folds of the flag memories of great days and heroic deeds dear to the hearts of all Americans. And from its simple birth the flag has come to know pomp and pageantry of display and written into the regulations that govern the army is a complete code of procedure for all occasions where it is officially known.

This code goes all the way back to the days of knighthood.

"The National Flag represents the living country and is considered as a living thing, the Union being the honor point," the army regulations say. "The right arm is the sword arm and therefore the point of danger; hence, the right is the place of honor. The edge of the flag which is toward the staff is the heraldic dexter or right edge. The Union of the flag, and the flag itself, when in company with other flags, is always given the honor point, i. e., the marching right, the flag's own right, or an observer's left."

It is from this recourse to the ancient rules of heraldry that flows the following regulations for display of the flag. It is provided that when the flag is carried in parade with other flags it must be placed to the right of the others; that when it is displayed from crossed staffs, "as against a wall, the National Flag will be on the right," or to the left of an observer facing the wall and that the staff of the flag shall be in front of the staff of its companion flag.

When the national flag is displayed in a group of flags, it must be placed "in the center, or at the highest point of the group." When hung horizontally or vertically against a wall, the Union must be placed uppermost and to the flag's own right.

The regulations say that the flag should be hung flat when displayed on a wall and not "festooned over doorways, or arches, tied in a bow-knot, nor fashioned into a rosette."

"One regulation too frequently ignored in arrangements for civilian indoor ceremonies reads:

"When used on a rostrum it (the National Flag) should be displayed above and behind the speaker's desk. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk nor be draped over the front of the platform."

The theory that the flag is a living thing as it represents the living country is carried out in regulations as to lowering it to a half-staff position in token of mourning.

"When the national flag is displayed at half staff," the regulations say, "it is first hoisted to the top of the staff and then lowered to the half staff position. Before lowering the flag for the day, it is again raised to the top of the staff."

Where the flag is laid over the casket containing the body of one entitled to that honor, its normal position is reversed and the Union is placed "over the left shoulder of the deceased." A government flag thus used may be given after the ceremony to relatives of the dead.

Special regulations cover the replacement of army flags and destruction of those worn out in service. The silk colors when beyond repair are replaced by new ones and the old flag is filed away in the archives of the regiment to which it belongs. There are many historic old flags thus in the files of the War Department, some of them belonging to regular regiments which fought in the war between the states, torn and stained with the marks of battle. There are others that date back almost to revolutionary times.

GRAND JURY HAS MANY INDICTMENTS

Will Hays Held on Serious Charge — Magistrate Creech, D. M. Bingham Indicted.

PINEVILLE, June 16.—Will Hays, assistant county school superintendent, was indicted by the Bell County Grand Jury last week on charges of uttering a forged instrument, according to records filed in the office of Circuit Clerk R. E. Wilson. The alleged forgery was in connection with a deed to a piece of property located in Bell county, it was said.

Two indictments, one charging false swearing and the other alleging fraudulent conversion, were returned by the grand jury against Magistrate M. F. Creech. It was charged that Magistrate Creech failed to report properly on fines assessed in his court.

D. M. Bingham, attorney, was indicted on three counts of breach of the peace.

Joe Eversole was indicted on a charge of murder growing out of the killing of Greely Scott here about two weeks ago. The shooting occurred in Wallsend. Scott, a cripple, was slain when he struck Eversole, according to the contentions of the defendant.

Fred Lane was indicted on charges of killing Andy Baird, deputy sheriff of Bell county, who was slain at Kettle Island early last month.

Eight indictments were returned against O. L. Baird charging him with selling cigarettes to minors.

The assesmbling of a jury from Clay county to try Paris Martin on charges of killing Roy Gasser cost the state approximately $760, according to Circuit Clerk Wilson. The case was continued on account of the absence of a material witness and the jury was dismissed Wednesday.

John Hensley was indicted, tried and convicted at this term of court on charges of possessing liquor. He was fined $300 and sentenced to 60 days in jail. Mrs. Hensley was remanded to jail to finish payment of a fine assessed against her on a liquor charge.

Ty Cobb Comes to Front of Batters With Average of .351

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 16.—With nine years of major league service behind him, Tyrus Raymond Cobb, pilot of the Detroit Tigers, instead of slipping towards the bottom of the American league batters, today is rushing to the top with an average of .351, placing him third in the list of leading hitters.

The famed Georgia Peach has the distinction of playing in every game with the Tigers since the start of the season and has been at bat more often than any other player in the league. Going to bat 202 times in 50 games, Cobb has connected with 71 hits, including ten doubles, two triples and a pair of home runs, and has crossed the plate 39 times.

Jamieson of Cleveland, batting eighth in the list a week ago, with an average of .343, climbed into a tie for second place honors with Babe Ruth of the Yankees with .356. Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, although out of the game as a result of an operation, still is leading the parade with .376. The figures include games of Wednesday.

Eddie Collins, acting manager of the White Sox, Barrett, White Sox shortstop and Jamieson of Cleveland, are in a triple tie in base stealing with nine each. Ruth has 14 homers, with Ken Williams of St. Louis trailing him with nine.

Other leading batters: Harris, Boston .349; Boone, Boston .349; Sheely, Chicago .348; Rice, Washington .343; Prothro, Washington .338; Meusel, New York .337; Williams, St. Louis .329.

In National League

In the National League, Rogers Hornsby of St. Louis passed Catcher Snyder of the Giants for batting honors, Hornsby having .406 and Snyder .391. Fourner of Brooklyn dropped to eleventh with an average of .337, but still leads in home run hitting with twelve.

Wheat of Brooklyn clings to third place with .386, followed by these players: Kelly, New York .365; Tierney, Boston .345; Youngs, New York .339; High, Brooklyn .338; Fournier, Brooklyn .337; Grimes, Chicago .336; Hartnett, Chicago .336; Frisch, New York .335.

In stolen bases Grantham, Chicago, leads with 12, white Bigbee and Carey of the Pirates "best pair of base burglars" in the league, trail with eleven each.

Frisch, New York, leads in gathering runs with 43; Grantham, Chicago has 36, for second place and Bancroft, Boston 34.

In team hitting the Giants have fallen down but leads Chicago for the league average, the former with .304 and the latter .287. Boston is crowding the Cubs with .283, Brooklyn next with .282, and St. Louis with .281.

Alexander turned in his eighth straight, and ninth pitching victory, having lost only one game this season.

Western League

Batting averages for the Western league have tightened, but without material change. Austin, Tulsa and Cullop, Omaha, who fought for the lead last week switched places with reduced averages, Cullop leading with .403, and the Oiler with .401. Davis, Lamb, Lelivelt and Sargent all of Tulsa, are next in the order named, Davis with .397, and the others tied with .389.

In home run hitting Davis, Tulsa, and his team mate, Washburn, are tied with 14 each. Bonowitz, Omaha, has 12.

Smith, Wichita, has 19 stolen bases, having added 4, while Corrigan, St. Joe has 12.

Washburn, Tulsa, leads with 62 runs scored.

Team batting is unchanged, Tulsa having .329 average, Denver second with .300 and Wichita with .299. Omaha, St. Joseph, Oklahoma City, Lincoln, Des Moines follow in the order named.

Southern Association

Paschal, Atlanta threatens Southern League Association sluggers, having climbed to fifth place. Lapan, Little Rock, leads with .404; J. Smith, Atlanta, .382; Forsythe, Mobile .375; Knode, Birmingham .369; Carlisle, Memphis .363, follow.

Paschal also leads in home runs with 10, having added two. In runs scored he has the high figure.

The paths have been hot for thieves. Marriott, Mobile stealing 20 bags, including three in one day, leads Stewart of Birmingham by 4.

Little Rock has taken a new lease on life, their hitting stride displacing Birmingham for the league honor with Atlanta, New Orleans next and Chattanooga tying New Orleans.

American Association

Outfielder Neun of St. Paul is giving no indication of passing out as the batting leader of the American Association. Today he is rejoicing in an average of .432, with Brief of Kansas City second with .404, and Dressen also of the Saints, third with .400.

The heavy hitting is not effecting Neun's feet and he continues to race madly around bases, adding five to his list for a total of twenty-six. There has been no startling developments among the home run hitters except that of Brief, Kansas City, has gone into a tie with Waterk of Minneapolis, with seven each, while Smith of Louisville leads with eight.

Christensen of St. Paul has increased his lead in run getting to 61, but is hotly pursued by Neun.

Other leading batters: Shannon, Louisville .83; Maguire, Toledo .366; Betzel, Louisville .359; Lamar, Toledo .348; Allen, Indianapolis .348; Dixon, St. Paul .347; High, Columbus .343; Grimes, Columbus .337.

Races 3 Miles To Halt Train, Prevents Wreck

BEATTYVILLE, June 16.—James Crawford, representing a Louisville oil development concern, saved the afternoon passenger train from Jackson to Lexington, on the L. and N. Railroad from going through a bridge over Hell Creek, between Beattyville and Maloney, first station beyond this.

Crawford was standing on the bridge between 2 and 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, following a cloudburst, watching one of the company's pipelines. Alarmed by cracking, he left the bridge just before one of the abutments crumbled and the bridge collapsed, leaving only the rails suspended over the gorge.

Knowing that the afternoon train from Jackson was about due, he mounted his horse and raced three miles to Maloney, arriving just as the train was pulling out of the yards and flagged it. The train was rerouted and traffic will detour until the bridge can be restored.

The first Middlesboro pitcher, allowed thirteen hits, one hit by pitched ball and walked two and five were fanned. The second pitcher allowed one hit, fanned two and walked one. The Benham pitcher allowed two hits. None were hit by pitched ball, none walked, and ten were fanned. Middlesboro had one two-base hit and Benham two two-base hits.

About five or six hundred persons saw the game which was interesting throughout. The local boys are obviously in need of practice and will doubtless make a better showing when the next game is played.

For Sex Hold Undisputed Sway Around Manila

Associated Press.

MANILA, June 16.—The recent earthquakes and volcanic eruptions in the Babuyan Islands have brought forth statements from mariners who recently have been in that region, that a large portion of the population is composed of women. It is said this situation is due to the fact that so many of the men have lost their lives at sea.

The male population of the islands engage almost entirely in fishing as a means of livilhood, and the frequent typhoons which sweep over that region play havoc with their frail fishing craft. It is stated that one one island of the group, with a population of about 200, there are 15 women to one man.

The constabulary of Cagayan province have been ordered to ascertain the condition of the people of the Babuyans and to furnish them supplies.

EASTERN DIXIE QUITE PASSABLE

By Associated Press.

FRANKFORT, June 16.—Work on various roads in Kentucky are attested to in the weekly detour and road conditions report of the department of state roads and highways, made public today. The report follows:

There seems to be little difficulty in traveling the Eastern Dixie from the South. Repairs seem to be nearly complete, south of Madison-Rockcastle line.

The road through Decoursey, Kenton and Demosville is still closed while repairs are being made south of Kenton. Southbound traffic from Cincinnati should cross the river at Newport, then go by way of Alexandria, and Grant's Lick to Butler. At Butler turn to right to avoid construction south of town, and go to the LLI road, then turn left and three miles to Greenwood School and on to Falmouth; then go through Cynthiana and Paris to Lexington. Excepting a few rought places this road is in good condition to Lexington.

The LLI road south of Covington between Bank Lick Creek (a point four miles south of Latonia) and Piner is under construction. There are several detours and a difficult ford to cross. For safe and certain going take the Alexandria route just described.

The Dixie Highway south of Covington is under construction. Local traffic through Florence and Williamstown should detour at Walton and Bracht Station. From Lexington to Rockcastle County line there are two stretches of three miles each. (See Rockcastle County.)

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY—From the Madison county line to Mt. Vernon is rough, but repairs are being made. Most of traffic going via Nicholasville, Camp Dick Robinson, Lancaster, Crab Orchard, and Mt. Vernon to avoid repair work. In traveling from Mt. Vernon to Livingston, keep the main road which is in good condition, excepting the new earth grade one mile north of Livingston; this at present is in fair condition, and traffic is going through with but little difficulty. From Livingston to Rockcastle River the gravel surface is in good condition.

LAUREL COUNTY—The earth grade just south of Rockcastle River is in good condition at present. Traffic going through in dry weather.

WHITLEY COUNTY—Macadam road from Corbin to Williamsburg is in excellent condition.

KNOX COUNTY—Tennessee traffic should go by way of Barbourville, Pineville and Middlesboro to Cumberland Gap. Grades and drain construction in progress between Corbin and Barbourville. The road three miles south of Corbin by way of Woodbine and Dishman Springs to Barbourville is now in good condition. Road through Barbourville, Pineville and Middlesboro, to Cumberland Gap, in good to excelelnt condition. Watch for the "Invisible Track Road" in Pineville; you will know it by the four longitudinal ruts in the surface.

JACKSON MORRIS IS OUT OF RACE

Poor Health Given As Reason — J. M. Robsion Now Unopposed for Nomination.

LOUISVILLE, June 16.—Gen. Jackson Morris of Somerset has withdrawn from the race for Republican nomination for Congressman from the Eleventh District. The withdrawal leaves Congressman J. M. Robsion, of Barbourville, unopposed for re-nomination and, unless someone declares against him within a brief space, he will obtain his party endorsement without a struggle. It would require a Democratic landslide of unprecedent al proportions to stir the Eleventh from its G. O. P. loyalty, though, due to local conditions, Mr. Robsion lost Wayne County in the 1922 election.

General Morris' retirement from the Republican contest in the Eleventh, which will be a distinct surprise to his friends, is due to a threatened breakdown, and was only determined upon after he had consulted with competent physicians, whose verdict was that by remaining in the race, he would run the risk of such serious impairment of his health as might even result fatally.

For years, the former adjutant general has been an unstinting speaker for all public causes in all sections of the commonwealth. During the war, when he was on active duty with the 38th Division, he aided thereby in all drives and afterward he was one of the most vigorous advocates of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, in advancing the work of rehabilitation and compensation for former soldiers and sailors.

Under the advice of his doctors, he will live out-of-doors in Cumberland County for several weeks, when he will go to Camp Knox, and then to Camp Perry, for military duty, and continue the same regime, under a tent, in the hope that complete recovery will be attained thereby.

WOMEN OF G. O. P. URGED TO WORK

Feminine Section of Party Hold Own Meeting at Cleveland Convention.

By Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—Republican women of the country were urged to put their shoulders to the wheel and work for the election of Calvin Coolidge in November at a meeting of republican women attending the national convention. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Leonard A. Wood of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Lindsey Patterson of North Carolina referred to the women members of the party as the "fifty-fifth sisters" because of the action of the Cleveland convention in giving them equal representation with men on the national committee and the affairs of the party. She declared that at political meetings during the campaign it should be fifty-fifty and not fifty men and five women.

"Just because Mr. Coolidge is to be nominated so easily, you must not think that his election will come so easy," Mrs. Wood cautioned, the women. "Every woman must get out and work."

JOHN COOLIDGE HEARS CONVENTION

Gets Details of Nomination of His Son For President Over the Radio.

PLYMOUTH, Vermont, June 14.—In the simple living room where Calvin Coolidge took the oath of office as president, John C. Coolidge sat Wednesday before a radio receiving set and heard his son nominated at Cleveland. As the cheers which greeted the president's name came to him through the air, the old man's eyes watered, but his purpose was steady and he calmly kept out his watch and timed each long round of applause.

"The colonel," as his neighbors call him, said little. If a visitor dropped in he offered one of the revolvers of his head set to the caller and plugged his unoccupied ear with a finger to hear better with the other.

Two or three friends also had head sets, and as chairman Mondell was heard, "the colonel" remarked to them that his voice sounded "just like Cal's." When Dr. Marion LeRoy Burton in his speech of nomination mentioned some episode of the president's life in Plymouth the father exclaimed, "I wonder how he knew that."

Mr. Coolidge went out to the roadside to greet ninety year old E. B. Pike of Waterbury, who said he had voted for Abraham Lincoln, and every republican president since. The two men talked together, and then Mr. Pike drove away and Mr. Coolidge hurried back to the radio.

FOR THE PREVENTION OF SIMPLE GOITER

Your State Department of Health Urges Its Use

EVERY PARENT SHOULD READ THIS LETTER
From the State Board of Health, Louisville, Ky

Mulkey Salt Co., Detroit, Michigan. May 7, 1924.
Gentlemen:
This Board is very glad, indeed, to know that you are arranging to sell Mulkey's Salt with enough iodine added to make up the deficiency of this element which is so essential, particularly, for the prevention of goiter in the young.
Your salt has especially good savor and the Board commends it for cooking and table purposes and hopes it will be used as a substitute for the ordinary salt which does not contain the valuable ingredients this salt has.
Very respectfully,
(Signed) A. T. McCORMACK, M. D.

Goiter is an enlargement of the thyroid gland due to a deficiency of iodine in the food or water supply. After goiter of any kind has developed to a point where the person notices the swelling or feels the nervousness or irritability which are so often a part of the condition, its treatment is considered very difficult. However, simple goiter can be prevented by supplying the food deficiency—iodine—in table salt. This method has been recommended by the health authorities in Virginia and other States. This is the purpose of Mulkey's Iodine Salt. In taste and color it is the same as ordinary free-running salt, but it contains the prescribed amount of Iodine to supply the thyroid gland in a normal condition.

MULKEY'S IODINE SALT

YOUR GROCER HAS IT.

Don't let your children develop simple goiter. Begin using Mulkey's Iodine Salt today, for cooking and on the table.

THE WHAT-NOT

By May Folwell Holsington.

I noticed it before the sale began:
Her what-not, made of spools and plain record sticks
With two light shelves of slightly warping board;
Her treasures still upon them . . shells
a fan
Carved out of one pine stick, some sailor man
Had given her; a little childish
hoard
Of "lucky-stones" in blue bead-baskets stored;
And last, a blown glass cup inscribed
"To Ann."
My memory evoked the sitting room
Wheer it had hung against the flowered wall
Above her sewing table; cameo-fine
I saw Ann, too; rose silver in the gloom
Of Summer twilights that I still recall.
A bit of fifty cents . . the 'lot' was mine!

OIL INSPECTORS QUIT TUESDAY

Political Job, Created 38 Years Ago, Abolished Under New Measure.

By Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, June 16.—Oil inspectors in eighty-eight counties in Kentucky will go out of office next Tuesday, June 17, when the old law, which created the office 38 years ago, is abolished under a measure passed at the last session of the general assembly. The, remaining 32 counties did not have such officers.

The inspectors would have collected approximately $160,000 in fees from the oil companies, according to estimates. This saving "will be reflected in prices" paid for gasoline, according to W. A. Stoll of the Stoll Oil and Refining Company. Mr. Stoll said all gasoline and kerosene prices are based on cost and inspection, and always been figured into the cost at one-fifth of a cent a gallon.

The office has netted the various inspectors from $100 a year in Lewis county to $42,000 in Jefferson county, according to figures compiled by The Louisville Times. The average runs from $300 to $1,200 a year

Fifty-five democrats, 23 republicans, including Roscoe Searcy, Jefferson county inspector, and ten whose politics were undertermined, will be affected, the newspaper says.

The fight to abolish the office was one of the features of the last session of the general assembly. The abolishment bill was passed by the house and sent to the senate, where it finally was concurred in, after Gov. Fields had personally appeared before that body and requested the action.

The senate previously had adopted a substitute bill retaining the office but limiting the salary to $5,000 a year when the governor made his appeal. The upper house receded from its original position and adopted the house measure by a vote of 31 to 3.

The governor termed the office "useless," said it antedated the constitution by seven years and that whatever excuse there may have been for its existence had vanished; thus there was no need to continue the office, especially at an annual burden of $160,000.

NEW LAW AGAINST DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Provides Heavy Penalty for Driving While Intoxicated—Effective July 19th.

Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 13.—A new law, directed against drunken automobile drivers, but with provisions so strict that, in the opinion of police officials and others, they may serve to make it inoperative, is to become effective Thursday, June 19.

The measure, passed at the last session of the general assembly imposed a fine of $100 to $500 for the first offense—driving an automobile while drunk—and a jail sentence for subsequent offenses.

Revocation of license to operate a vehicle and a fine of $25 to $100 for sheriffs and other peace officers who fail to enforce the law, also are provided. These two provisions may bring about the undoing of all the new measure was designed to do, in the opinion of Stanley Mayer, counsel for the Louisville Automobile club, and and Police Captain J. M. Loran of the traffic bureau.

"How can we revoke a license that does not exist?" officials ask.

Mr. Mayer, while admitting that the law has plenty of teeth in it, said that Kentucky licenses only chauffeurs, and "since professional chauffeurs are the least offenders in cases of drunkenness in driving, it will not affect the license of an automobile and would not keep a man from driving another car."

"The license of an automobile could not be revoked by this law," he said. "The fine for not enforcing this law cannot be made effective, because when an officer neglects his duty he can be charged with malfeasance in office and indicted."

Seek to Stop Speeding on Streets Here

Renewed efforts are being made to stop speeding along public streets here. The practice is rapidly growing into a public hazard and Commissioner C. E. Cooke declared this afternoon that he had given again the police department strict orders to apprehend all violators and bring them into the city court where they will be punished.

A mania of motorcycle speeding is spreading over the city and this, in particular, will be closely watched by the officers. While any violation of traffic laws will be punished, the law against speeding will be enforced with special vigor. The practice of operating motorcycles with cut-outs open is also getting to be quite a nuisance and every effort will be made to check it.

$200,000 ISSUE OF BONDS PLAN

Citizens Greene and Greeneville Will Vote Saturday on Road Proposal.

GREENEVILLE, Tenn., June 16.—Citizens of Greeneville and Greene county are planning to gather here Saturday to vote in the bond election which decides whether or not bonds to the amount of $200,000 will be issued to repairs and resurface roads in this section.

The recently organized factions advocating and opposing the issuance of the bonds are at work this week in the town and county and all indications point to a hotly contested affair here Saturday. For a number of years Greene County roads have been in a bad shape, and local authorities have recognized the necessity of steps being taken to improve their condition at once. Should the bonds carry, it is understood that construction will begin at once, and repairs will be made on the roads before the influx of tobacco wagons into the city from all parts of the country when the market opens next fall.

City Barber Shop Closes Its Business
